

Thirty-eight colleges

across the country will hold events to discuss post-Katrina social conditions and to support the Gulf Coast Civic Works Project, which is the national effort to develop federal legislation for 100,000 WPA-like jobs for Gulf Coast residents to rebuild their communities.

9

Monday

April 9th, 2007 12-1pm

THE NEXT MOVEMENT

There will be several artists and Dj's performing in support of the Gulf Coast Civic Works Project.

Located in SJSU student amphitheater near student union

For more information contact Godfrey Ramos at godfrey.ramos@gmail.com

10

Tuesday

April 10th, 2007 7-10pm

KATRINAQUEST

Outdoor film event including several films made by college students.

"Refuge of Last Resort: The True Hurricane Katrina Story"

"Down But Not Out" by David Zlutnick

"Heaven Come Down: Stories of the Lower Ninth Ward" Estee Blanchard

"Trying Days" Colectivo Media Insurgent

"The Drive" New Orleans Video Access Center

Located on the lawn in front of the Tommie Smith and John Carlos statues

For more information contact Rochelle Smarr at chelle1036@msn.com

11

Wednesday

April 11th, 2007 1-3pm

KATRINA VICTIMS: THE READING OF THE NAMES

Students and faculty will read the names of the 1785 people who lost their lives in Hurricane Katrina. Interspersed between the reading of names will be stories from survivors and discussion of the Gulf Coast Civic Works Project.

Located in front of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Library

SOLIDARITY DINNER 6-9pm
Upon conclusion of readings, there will be a dinner in the MLK library for students, faculty, and guests. Room 225

For more information contact Salena Acox at salena.acox@gmail.com, Tasha Easton at tmarie0609@hotmail.com or Mui Sam Le at muisamle@gmail.com

12

Thursday

April 12th, 2007 12-1pm

RALLY FOR KATRINA

Students will march through campus with signs in support of the Gulf Coast Civic Works Project.

Students please meet at the Tommie Smith and John Carlos statues.

A barbecue will be held at SJSU pits in appreciation of our supporters from 2-5pm.

For more information contact Victoria Chavez at vchavez63@yahoo.com

Get involved.

All events located @ SJSU campus.

www.solvingpoverty.com

